RARE BIBLE RETURNED TO AC

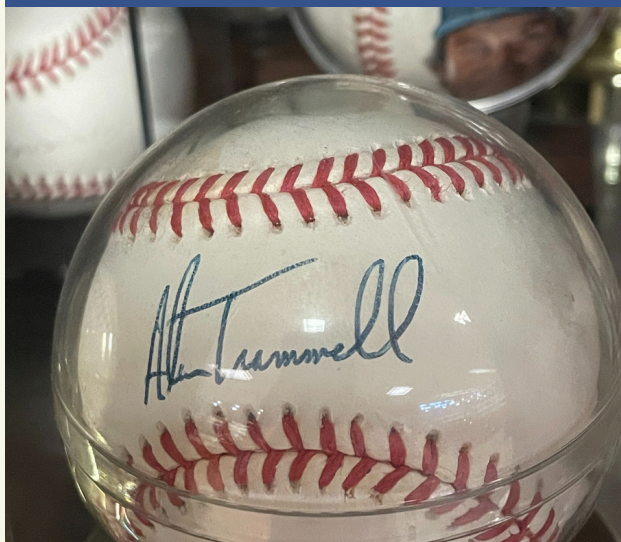

We were recently contacted by a librarian at the Harvard Divinity School, who had discovered a rare 19th century Hebrew Bible that had once belonged to the Adrian College Library. We were able to have this treasure returned to us and it is now on display in the library's Heritage Room.

The two volume set, published in Philadelphia in 1814, is quite rare and is considered an important work for bibliophiles and rare book collectors.

Nobody knows how it ended up at Harvard, but we are glad to have it back!

MAYBE NEXT YEAR

The Detroit Tigers fell short again this year, but diehard fans can stop by Shipman Library to see some of the great Tigers memorabilia we have on display. These items are part of a large collection that was donated by AC alumnus Gary Spicer.

GET IN TOUCH

If you have questions about our collection or have items for potential donation to the archive, please reach out to us at shipmanlibrarian@adrian.edu! You can also schedule an appointment to access archival materials in person using that same email address. We would love to hear from you!
